

Area of study

Your child will ... (Knowledge)

Your child will be able to... (Skills)

Autumn term 1 & 2

The study of Medicine through time

- Thematic study and historic environment: Medicine Through Time -

The thematic studies require students to understand change and continuity across a long sweep of history, including the most significant characteristics of different ages from the Medieval to Modern periods. This will include people, events and developments and reveal wider changes in aspects of the understanding of the causes, treatment and prevention of disease. centuries and allow comparisons to be made between different periods of history.

Answer the following GCSE questions

Describe
Plan an historical enquiry
Explain
How far do you agree
Explain change through time
Source utility

Spring Term 1 & 2

Weimar and Nazi
Germany –
1919 - 1939

Weimar – Nazi Germany 1919 – 1939 -

Students will study a substantial and coherent short time span that require students to understand the complexity of a society or historical situation and the interplay of different aspects within it. This will include the economic, social and political factors that led to the foundation and decline of Weimar germany and the rise of the Nazis

Answer the following GCSE questions

How are interpretations different
Why are interpretations different Inference
How far do you agree with an interpretation

Area of study

Your child will ... (Knowledge)

Your child will be able to... (Skills)

Autumn term 1 & 2

Superpower relations and the cold war 1941-1991

Period study of superpower relations and the cold war 1941-1991. They will study a period of circa 50 years and analyse events surrounding important issues and developments within this period. they will develop a coherent narrative of the whole cold war.

Students will learn to answer the following GCSE questions

Importance of an event consequences of an event
Writing an historical narrative

Spring term 1

Anglo Saxon and Norman England

Depth of study of Early Elizabethan England
Students will be able to explain the religious, domestic and foreign challenges to Elizabeth's rule, and how Elizabeth dealt with the challenges to her power.
Students will learn about Elizabethan society, including culture, education, sport.
The beginnings of empire in the Americas.

Students will learn to answer the following GCSE questions

Describe
Explain questions
How far do you agree